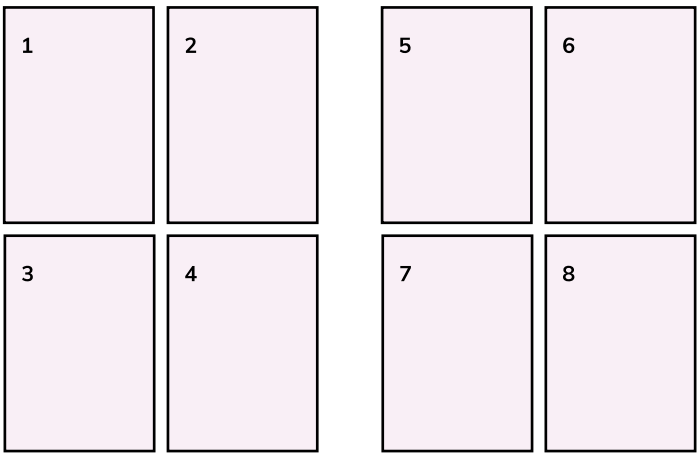
TAROT CHEAT SHEET

decision spread

Making big decisions is never easy. Whether it's about making a big purchase, entering a relationship, or taking a leap in your career, this spread helps you dive deeper into the decision-making process. Rather than providing a strict "yes" or "no," the Decision Spread opens up the possibilities, offering you guidance and insight into how each choice could affect your life. This approach empowers you to make decisions based on clarity and personal alignment.

1. How are you feeling about this? This card reflects your current emotions surrounding the decision. It gives insight into whether you're excited, anxious, or conflicted.
2. What will this change mean for your life? This card reveals the potential impact the decision could have on your overall life and well-being.
3. What will happen if you do this? This card shows the possible outcome or future scenario if you choose to go forward with the decision.
4. What will happen if you don't do this? This card offers a glimpse into what your life might look like if you choose not to take action or pursue this change.
5. What do you truly want out of this change? This card helps you get clear on your deeper desires and motivations behind making this decision.
6. What do you fear letting go of in this change? This card uncovers any fears or resistance you might have about making the change, helping you understand what's holding you back.
7. Possible outcome: This card offers an overall view of the outcome, considering all aspects of the decision and its potential.
8. How can you align your energy to manifest the right outcome? This card provides guidance on how to energetically align yourself to attract the best possible result for your situation.



The Decision Spread is perfect for times when you're feeling uncertain or overwhelmed by a choice in your life. It allows you to break the question down into manageable parts, helping you explore both the emotional and practical sides of the situation. Rather than simply offering an answer, this spread empowers you to consider the implications of your decision and make the choice that aligns best with your heart and mind.
